LAKES

Berkeley Gold—This gigantic golden Iris is about as nearly perfect as anything yet introduced. Well branched three foot stems and solid deep yellow flowers of finest substance. Considered by many judges as the best yellow Iris to date. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Birchbark—A solid clean white with unusually fine heavy substance. A perfect sort for landscaping. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Blue Shimmer—A new and entirely different plicata. The white ground is evenly peppered with blue instead of the familiar stitching. The regal blooms have a charm that is beyond description. An extremely large flower and a strong grower. $1.50 each; 3 for $3.75

Bright Melody—A new coloring of bright concord grape effect. This is a very smooth, beautifully finished flower. $1.50 each

Brown Thrasher—Like the glint of sunshine on the wing of a brown thrasher. This is a bright, exciting Iris in two shades of brown. $1.25 each

Bryce Canyon—A marvelous new bright henna-copper colored Iris. The domed standards and broad falls gleam in the sun like the walls of its famous namesake. A complete new break in Iris coloring. One of the best. $3.50 each

Buckskin—The finest buckskin tan we know of. 4" stalks carrying several glorious open blooms. 40c each; 3 for $1.00

Capt. Wells—Deep reddish maroon-purple with an unusual shine or gloss that makes it stand out among all other dark Iris. Large well formed flowers of excellent substance. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Caroline Burr—Something really different in cream colored Iris, having an odd cast of elusive green. Immense blooms on 4' stems. HM, 1944; AM, 1946. $1.00 each

China Maid—An intriguing blend of pink, golden bronze and soft lilac. Large, well proportioned flowers of smooth texture on 4' stems. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

City of Lincoln—Brightest and best variegata. Standards intense golden yellow. Falls fiery red. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Copper Rose—Marvelous blending of old rose, copper and tan brightened by a glowing golden center. Large flowers of broad standards and falls. $1.00 each

Coral Mist—An outstanding flower of bright rose pink lightly flushed with cinnamon. The falls are a little deeper than the standards but the effect is decidedly pink. $1.00 each

Corinthe—A fine deep blue with beautifully flaring falls. This huge Iris is one of the very last to bloom, lengthening the season by a good 10 days. 50c each

Display—Glorious rich deep red that is so dark as to appear almost black. This Spanish red has fire and life that is seldom seen in dark colored flowers of any sort. $1.00 each

Edward Lapham—This is considered by some as the reddest Iris to date. Certainly it is a very fine richly colored maroon-red lightened by a bronzy gold beard. $2.00 each

Elmohr—Dykes Medal winner in 1945. A colossal flower of rich reddish violet having thick heavy substance that withstands all weather. No Iris has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Elsa Sass—A glorious shade of clear sulphur yellow with a greenish cast and a near white blaze at the haft. This lovely Iris is beautifully frilled and very fragrant. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Fair Elaine—A distinctly different yellow having cream standards and bright yellow falls set off by a fiery orange beard. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Fort Knox—An exquisite soft yellow. Flowers large and well spaced on 3' stems. Altogether charming. $1.00 each

Frank Adams—An unusually large well proportioned Iris with rosy tan standards and rose-red falls, beautifully blended. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Glen Ellen—Golden tan overlaid with coppery bronze. HM 1939. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

OLA KALA

Golden Majesty—Fine large deep yellow perfect in every respect. Very late and thoroughly hardy. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Golden Spike—Stunning deep yellow with rich orange beard. A strong tall grower with very large flowers, this Iris holds its own with the best of the new yellows. 60c each

Golden Treasure—Solid deep cream with a heart of golden orange. Very tall and perfectly branched, this Iris is always an outstanding beauty. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Grand Canyon—A distinctive novelty in shades of deep plum, copper and gold. A color combination that defies description. A great favorite. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Great Lakes—A clear sky blue self of regal beauty. This Iris has the enviable record of heading the Iris symposium for four successive years. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Gudrun—A superlative white Iris having heavily textured petals like those of a magnolia. Dykes Medal winner. 35c each; 3 for 90c

Gypsy Baron—A big bold flower of perfect form and habit. This is a deep blue purple plicata that is marbled rather than stitched and the effect is most intriguing. Very fragrant. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Hoogsan—This new regal giant introduced in 1947 is greatly admired here. The huge flowers, borne on well branched 50" stalks are of unusually smooth lacquer-like Delphinium-blue. The perfection of form in the parent, Hoogiana, has been maintained in this new hybrid. Thoroughly hardy, a prolific bloomer, and rapid increaser. $3.50 each; 3 for $8.50

Icy Blue—The palest blue self, almost a white. Large well formed flowers on tall nicely branched stems. 50c each

Indiana Sunset—A rich blending of sunset colors with a definite pink effect. A large, tall grower with well branched stalks. Very popular with our visitors. 75c each

Jake—A glorious big white that has been an outstanding favorite with our visitors for several years. It is among the very largest of all Iris and of perfect form. A wonderful performer. 60c each; 3 for $1.50

Lady Mohr—A new and entirely different member of the Wm. Mohr family. The huge standards are oyster shell white and the falls are pale chartreuse or greenish yellow. In common with the family, it has unusually heavy substance and long lasting quality. $2.50 each; 3 for $6.50

Late Sun—An intense deep yellow of unusual brilliance. Thick heavy petals make up a very large flower on 40" stalks. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Lighthouse—This bright rose blend is one of the most popular Iris we grow. The huge dome shaped bloom seems to be illuminated by an inner glow of gold. Very aptly named. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

L. Merton Gage—Immense flowers of raspberry pink and cream carried on strong well branched stems. As a pink, this one is hard to beat. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Lord Dongan—A striking and most unusual shade of Chinese violet. Immense flowers, truly breath taking. $1.00 each

Los Angeles—An immense cool white lightly brushed with clear blue about the haft. So popular that stock is always short. 40c each; 3 for $1.00

Marquita—An immense flower with creamy ivory standards and falls heavily washed with brilliant rose. 40c each; 3 for $1.10

Mary E. Nichols—Smooth creamy white with extra heavy substance. HM 1940; AM 1943. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Mary Vernon—This combines the most brilliant colors found in Iris. Standards bright old gold flushed Chianti ruby at midrib. The broad flaring falls are intense Chianti ruby. So very bright that it stands out in the field among all others. $2.00 each; 3 for $5.00

Master Charles—Glowing mulberry purple with a touch of brown in the haft. Mulberry beard tipped with brown. A brilliant, spectacular flower. $2.50 each; 3 for $6.50

Matterhorn—Pure snow white of wonderful size and substance, often showing four fully opened flowers beautifully spaced at one time. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Melanie—An exquisite new light pink, often showing five fully opened flowers on a stalk. Tall, well branched and vigorous. 60c each; 3 for $1.50

Melitza—A unique salmon ivory with a fiery tangerine beard. This Iris must be seen to be appreciated. It is a definite novelty. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Mexico—This beautiful blend is a personal favorite. The standards are golden buff and the falls are a glowing red brown copper bordered with golden buff. Perfectly gigantic in size and lightly ruffled. We are completely sold on this one. $2.00 each

Ming Yellow—Rich, pure deep yellow of unusual smoothness. The huge well-rounded flowers are carried on perfectly branching stalks. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Miss California—A gigantic lilac-pink. Very tall and vigorous. A sensational pink toned Iris. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Missouri—A wonderful porcelain blue. Very smooth finish. Fine size and form. Dyke Medal winner. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Mme. L. Aureau—A glorious plicata from Cayeux. Silvery white closely netted with rosy heliotrope. 40c each; 3 for $1.00

Moonlight Madonna—A larger more ruffled Elsa Sass with the same lemon ice coloring, shading to ivory in the center of the falls. Tall, strong grower. $1.50 each

Moonlit Sea—This unique novelty is made up of a cream background overlaid bright lavender and mulberry purple with golden haft. Always a complete sell out on this one. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Mrs. Willard Jacques—Fine large deep pink, overlaid with apricot, beautifully ruffled and frilled. 35c each; 3 for 90c

Mulberry Rose—The name was well chosen for this giant Iris. It is a purplish rose color completely different from any other sort we have grown. Tall, well branched stalks and flowers of heavy substance. $1.00 each

Nightfall—Falls rich dark pansy purple and standards several shades lighter. The whole flower has a sheen like finest velvet. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Ola Kala (Oh'-la Ka-lah')—This is the Greek way of saying Okay, and this Iris is certainly well named. In 1946 this one tied for the Dykes Medal and in 1948 won it outright. Of all the fine new yellow Iris now being grown, this is perhaps the deepest in color. Heavily ruffled, medium large flowers on sturdy 3' stalks beautifully spaced. Add to this the fact that Ola Kala is unusually vigorous and prolific and we have an outstanding Iris. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00

Old Parchment—A light creamy tan with a golden buff overlay. This Iris has a peculiar charm all its own that has made it immensely popular. 60c each; 3 for $1.50

Orloff—A stunning plicata. It is heavily dotted and stitched with cinnamon brown on cream. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Ormaco—A fine seedling of Ormohr having a metallic cast. A magnificent flower of mulberry overlaid with bronze. Superb. $1.00 each

Ormohr—One of the largest Iris grown. Pale silvery violet with deeper markings. Unusually heavy substance and long lasting qualities have made this giant our most popular Iris in recent years. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Pink Ruffles—A heavily fluted and ruffled flower of soft lilac pink. Not very tall but a glorious sight in a clump. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Prairie Sunset—This magnificent Sass creation heartily deserves the Dykes Medal which it won in 1943. A marvelous blending of all the sunset colors. $1.00 each

Radiant—Burnished golden bronze standards and glowing copper red falls. A striking Iris of unusual brilliance. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Red Gleam—This Iris has been declared the nearest approach to scarlet of anything yet achieved. Certainly one of the most brilliant Iris grown. 75c each

TIFFANY

Royal Scot—This has been one of the most popular plicatas with our visitors for several years. A tall, large flowered sort with a very heavy red trim of pleasing burgundy red. The veining is so heavy that the flowers seem to be red from a little distance. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Ruth Pollock—One of the most popular plicatas. Lovely soft yellow heavily patterned with reddish purple. Perfect form and habit. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Sable—Deep black violet with a wonderfully lustrous sheen. A truly stunning bloom of fine size and form. $1.00 each

Salar—Creamy flesh entirely dominated by an overlay of salmon. 3'. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Shannopin—Striking flower with creamy yellow standards and bright pink falls. A very prolific bloomer. 4'. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Sheriffa—Onco-bred Iris of deep metallic violet lightly veined. A striking flower reaching 5'. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Siegfried—A really huge flower and distinct among all plicatas. Very definite stitching of deep purple over a buff yellow ground. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Sierra Blue—A pure deep blue with lacquer-like finish on 5' stalks. 35c each; 3 for 90c

Silver Susie—The tallest Iris we grow. The beautifully branched 63" stalks bearing immense pure white flowers are a glorious sight. $1.50 each; 3 for $3.75

Smolder—Deep blackish purple with red undertone. A brown beard adds a warmth of tone. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Snow Flurry—A spectacular flower of blue-white beautifully ruffled and frilled, on 48" well branched stalks. $1.25 each

Snow Velvet—A very fine white of heavy substance, holding up well even in very hot weather. Golden beard. $1.00 each

Solid Mahogany—The name aptly describes this one. It has magnificent plush-like substance and is like a piece of fine velvet in the sun. There are no haft venations to mar the effect. $3.00 each; 3 for $8.00

Sonrisa—One of the very best pink blends, coppery-pink predominating, with an undertone of soft metallic yellow. Unusually large flowers and very free blooming. $1.50 each

Spanish Peaks—A beautiful new large flowered pure white that combines outstanding size and height with the distinctive charm and simplicity that only a true self can have. We quote from the introducer: "Spanish Peaks is white—nothing else, just white—as pure and unmarred as the great snow masses that cover the lofty peaks for which it is named. The throat, the beard, the style-arms—all are white as the gleaming wastelands that lie beyond the timberline where the winter storms are born." $12.50 each

Spindrift—Translucent, delicate seashell or coral-pink, with fiery tangerine beard. Spectacular and very scarce. $2.00 each

Spun Gold—Probably the most sought after yellow Iris. Perfect in every respect. Immense flowers well spaced on 4' stalks of heavy substance. Dykes Medal 1944. $1.00 each

Stained Glass—Unlike anything else this is a solid copper colored flower with a reddish tone. Glows like burnished copper in the sun. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Stardom—A luscious coppery-pink and apricot buff with brilliant tangerine beard. The effect is pleasing in the extreme. We like it better each year. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Sylvia Murray—Enormous flowers on 40" stems of soft silvery blue. This grand Iris is among the first to bloom. We class it among the finest of all Iris. $2.25 each

The Admiral—A fine dark medium blue that has unusual resistance to wind, rain and sun. The intense coloring is accentuated by a blue beard. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

The Red Douglas—An intense red of colossal size, unusually heavy texture and perfect form. Dykes Medal winner 1941. 75c each; 3 for $2.00

Three Oaks—One of the very finest rose-pink blends overlaid with copper rose. Immense flowers on 40" stalks. This one is an eye-opener. $2.50 each

Three Sisters—A striking novelty having cream colored standards and red-violet falls. 40". $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Tiffanja—Standards colonial buff, falls creamy white, both lightly bordered with specks of brown. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

Tiffany—The most popular plicata ever introduced. Enormous frilled flowers of soft yellow generously marked with bronzy pinkish-violet. 50c each; 3 for $1.25

Tishomingo—Glorious wisteria blue self with a frosty sheen. The flowers are very large and broad; stalks tall and well branched. $1.00 each; 3 for $2.50

TWICE FLOWERING IRIS

This splendid group blooms freely in the spring and again in September and October. Some of the dwarf types are almost continuous bloomers. For best results they should be watered freely during the summer months.

Autumn Flame—Bright blazing red purple. One of the tallest of the fall bloomers.

Autumn Frost—A lovely frosty white with yellow beard.

Autumn King—Vigorous rich deep blue.

Autumn Queen—Pure snow white.

Autumn Surprise—Fine medium blue self.

Black Magic—Intense deep blue.

Crysoro—Fine deep orange yellow.

Dorcas Hutcheson—Rich pansy-violet.

Eleanor Roosevelt—Rich raisin-purple.

Equinox—A rich violet bi-color.

Jean Siret—Yellow striped with purple.

Lieut. Chavagnac—Brilliant purple.

Marti Everest—Fine large deep blue.

Olive White—Cream with green gold veining and dark markings at the haft.

Polar King—Very large white, flushed green.

Sangreal—A frilled yellow that is a most reliable rebloomer.

Sept. Skies—A smooth violet with deeper falls.

Ultra—Brilliant ultra marine blue.

White Autumn King—Magnificent pure white.
